The Christkindlesmarkt

www.christkindlesmarkt.de

The enticing aroma of gingerbread, mulled wine and grilled sausages fills the air at the Nuremberg Christkindlesmarkt. First mentioned in 1628, its roots probably go back to the time of the Reformation, when the tradition of giving children presents at Christmas evolved. Since then, traditional wares such as handmade Christmas decorations, “Rauschgold” angels and prune men as well as culinary delights have been offered in more than 180 wooden booths with red and white roofs. Take a stroll through the festively lighted lanes and discover the enchantment of this magical atmosphere.

The Nuremberg Christkind

The Christkind is the symbol of Christmas in Nuremberg. With its blond curly hair, wearing a golden crown and gold-and-white gown, it traditionally opens its market with a prologue on the Friday before the first Sunday in Advent. Appearances at the Christkindlesmarkt, the Children’s Christmas Market and the “Sternenhaus” are part of its regular schedule along with visits to charitable organizations. Nuremberg selects a new Christkind for this heavenly office every two years.

i Festive Opening Ceremony
November 30, 2018
5:30 pm

Meet the Nuremberg Christkind:
Starting Dec. 4
Every Tuesday, Wednesday,
Thursday and Friday at 3 pm
at the Christkindlesmarkt

The Christkind Opens Its Market

The prologue which the Nuremberg Christkind recites every year at the opening of the Christkindlesmarkt was written in 1948 by Friedrich Bröger. He was the principal dramaturg of the theater and son of the Nuremberg workers' poet Karl Bröger.

The text has been adapted a number of times.

You men and women, who once yourselves were children,
You little ones, life's journey just beginning,
Each and all, who troubled tomorrow, are full of cheer today,
Pray listen to what Christkind has come to say!

Every year, four weeks before the time,
To decorate the Christmas tree, to celebrate the season,
Appears upon this square, your forebears knew it too,
What you here see, called Christkindlesmarkt by you,

This little town within the town, of wood and cloth made,
Whose short-lived splendor so fleeting seems to be,
And yet it is eternal. My market shall forever young remain.
As long as Nuremberg stands, and the memory of that market's fame.

For Nuremberg is both old and young at once,
The many features of its countenance beyond all count.
Here this noble square. But now adjoining it,
The tall buildings of today, the factories of the modern world
The new city of so much green. And yet, you men and women true
It will remain forever the Nuremberg that is you.

Now as the old year ends there comes the day,
When wishes can be made and presents given,
When the market shines forth far and wide,
With decorations, and crystal balls, and blessed Christmastime
This you may not forget, you men and women, heed my word,
He who has all needs nothing more,
There are the children of this world and poor,

Who know the best what giving's for.
You men and women, who once yourselves were children,
Be them again today, happy as children be,
And now the Christkind to its market calls,
And all who come are truly welcome.

Sustainability at the Christkindlesmarkt

The Nuremberg Christkindlesmarkt not only places the greatest importance on offering traditional wares, but also on sustainable development.

- ◆ To promote regional business cycles many of the wares are made by traditional regional manufacturers. Even the stalls are made of regional spruce; more than 30 stalls still date back to 1890.
- ◆ The Christkindlesmarkt has been supplied with regenerative energy from regional hydroelectric plants and photovoltaic power plants since 2012.
- ◆ All mulled wine stands work with a reusable cup system. The mugs are centrally washed, saving energy and avoiding waste.
- ◆ This brochure - as all other printed materials about the market - was printed on FSC-certified paper.

- ◆ The Organic Metropolis Nuremberg was the first German city to join the organic city network "Città del BIO" in December 2006. At the Christkindlesmarkt there are approximately 40 stalls with famous Nuremberg specialties in best organic quality. Look for the EU organic certification seal at the booths.

Gold Foil Angels

It glitters and glistens, traditionally has no arms, but is the quintessence of the Nuremberg Christkindlesmarkt and can be found here in all sizes – the Nuremberg gold foil angel. According to legend, a Nuremberg doll maker made it for his sick daughter.

An origin in the 16th century is more likely: At that time, the thinly beaten brass used to make them was called “Rauschgold”, because of the whispering sound it made.

The World of the Prune Men

Zwetschgenmännle – the well-loved figures made of prunes – have been sold at the Christkindlesmarkt for decades. More than 350 different figures are available. The figures are 9 to 22 centimeters high and are in illustrious company on the shelves of the stalls where they’re sold.

Sister Cities Market

International Christmas market flair can be found at the Rathausplatz next to the Christkindlesmarkt: An area full of international booths with colorful themes and traditional goods - from more than 20 sister cities and municipalities associated with Nuremberg - invites visitors to a pre-Christmas “journey” round the world.

Food and Drink

tourismus.nuernberg.de/kulinarik

Nuremberg, like no other city in Germany, stands for culinary delicacies. While gingerbread is at its peak during the Christmas season, the finger-sized grilled sausages are eaten all year long. Equally worth trying is a crackling pork shoulder (Schäufele) with a dumpling (Kloß) or a Franconian carp (Karpfen). A glass of Franconian wine or a cool beer are an enjoyable pairing with the regional specialties.

But not only traditional Franconian cuisine finds its way to your plate in Nuremberg. Gourmet establishments and restaurants with star ratings treat their guests to innovative dishes and exceptional food combinations. Fresh regional products are the norm, mostly sourced from the local market gardens of Knoblauchsland. In addition, the best organic quality can be found on the menu of many restaurants. No wonder, because Nuremberg is an organic metropolis.

Winter Warmer – Brewed for the Winter

ADVERTISEMENT

The Altstadt Hof Brewery has created the first modern Nuremberg spiced beer. The Winter Warmer is a composition of malt, hops and a special mix of nine select spices, reviving an ancient medieval brew with a one-of-a-kind taste.

The hot Winter Warmer, at Booth no.142 🍷, warms body and soul with every sip.

Hot Tip: Nuremberg Mulled Wine

It's the local favorite among Nuremberg's Christmas specialties: blueberry mulled wine. It tastes particularly good because it is made of pure blueberry wine and the very best ingredients, including aniseed, cinnamon, cloves and other spices - the highlight of every visit to the Christkindlesmarkt during the Advent season.

Nuremberg's location at the crossing of the most important medieval trading routes made it renowned as "The City of Spices". Thanks to an imperial commission to "develop specialties" "spiced wine" – a wine mixed with various spices – was created and developed by patrician and merchant families. After the boom years of the 1960s, "Nuremberg Mulled Wine" became protected under EU law in the early 1990s. Today it is offered and marketed internationally by four large renowned producers.

Gerstacker Wines

ADVERTISEMENT

A special recommendation is the red and white winemaker's mulled wine at Booth No. 44 🍷 with its especially harmonious blend of spices. Here, you can drink a "Star" mulled beverage (organic and vegan) from a choice Tempranillo wine. It has been created by the well-known chefs at the famous restaurant Essigbrätlein in Nuremberg, who have received two Michelin stars, especially for their work with flavors and aromas. Extracts from typical Nuremberg gingerbread spices, bourbon vanilla and fruit and extracts of oak wood make the mulled wine a one-of-a-kind taste experience. Or you might want to try a Christkindles alcohol-free Children's Punch with its 10 vitamins (made from an age-old secret recipe) or the full-bodied blueberry mulled wine or roasted apple punch. All of these delicious products come from the traditional GERSTACKER winery in Nuremberg, which is now led by the third generation of the family and closely tied to the name of Nuremberg. Many other interesting winter and summer products are available not only in Germany, but also throughout Europe, the US and in Asia.

A Little Treat with Big Flavor

Nuremberg Rostbratwurst – A small but hearty treat

A true Nuremberg sausage is only seven to nine centimeters long and weighs just 20 to 25 grams. But these little sausages pack a lot of flavor. Nuremberg grilled sausages are an absolute must when strolling across the Christkindlesmarkt or through the Old Town. The consistency and size of today's pork sausage was laid down back in the 14th century. There are many legends about why the sausages are so small. Today, size, weight and recipe are protected by EU law, guaranteeing the quality and tradition of this small symbol of the town.

This Nuremberg delicacy – which is traditionally grilled over a beechwood fire – is served as 6, 8, 10 or 12 sausages on a pewter plate, traditionally enjoyed with a side dish of sauerkraut or potato salad, mustard or horseradish (Kren) and coarse rye bread.

The well-known sausages served as “Three in a Bun” (Drei im Weggla) are found on almost every corner - and not only during Advent.

Tasty and Decorative

It looks back on a long tradition and – like mulled wine – is indelibly linked with Christmas: Nuremberg gingerbread. Thanks to the trading links of its cosmopolitan merchants, the city developed early on into a gingerbread capital, for the gingerbread makers were continually supplied with almonds, cinnamon and other spices. The woods around Nuremberg also helped furnish an essential component – natural honey. Today this specialty, which under EU law can be produced only within the city limits, is found in round as well as square shapes, coated with chocolate or a sugar icing or plain with almonds.

Be sure not to miss the Nuremberg anise-flavored cookie with an embossed design, also called a “Springerle” or “Reiterle”. It is made of eggs, flour and fine sugar, and produced by pressing the dough into a mold. This delicious and decorative treat is usually hung on the Christmas tree and later eaten.

Advent with the Old Town Churches

ADVENTS WORT

These are the precious moments at the end of the year that prepare the way for a journey into one's self and a time of solitude ... Nuremberg's Words for Advent are meant to inspire you: 90 seconds which bring the message and peace of Advent:

- From Saturday, December 1, to Monday, December 24, 2018
- Every evening at 5:30 pm (12/24 at noon) on the stage of the Christmas Market (in front of the Church of Our Lady)
- 24 speakers from the church have prepared Nuremberg's Words for Advent (German only)
- Short prayers, stories, Bible readings and homilies to inspire you
- The first Words for Advent come from Nuremberg's Lutheran city dean, Dr. Jürgen Körnlein

During Advent, you can experience prayers, worship services and concerts in all the churches of Nuremberg.

Nuremberg Words for Advent

90 Seconds for the Soul

Advent is a very special time: The air is filled with the scent of gingerbread and bratwurst; mulled wine and baked goods. Well-known songs and tunes can be heard everywhere. Christians prepare themselves for Christmas. And in all of the bustle there's time for reflection and quiet moments.

Christmas Time - Museum Time

Bake some gingerbread or learn something interesting about the history of the city - during Advent the Nuremberg museums offer many special exhibits and activities, which shorten the time up to Christmas.

Toy Museum

Toys from yesterday and today

Christmas, toys and time for friends and family go together: In the Toy Museum there are hundreds of historical and contemporary toys on display. They've always been a favorite gift under the Christmas tree and visitors are always inspired to get out their toys and games to play - whether with Lego, a model train or a good old doll's house. From November 16, a new special exhibit in the ground floor opened - where you can and should play to your heart's delight!

In the historical courtyard and museum's playground the "Glühschwein" offers hearty soups, mulled wine and gingerbread - all homemade!

Main Market Stage

The Christmas program with music groups from the region adds to the festive atmosphere at the Christkindlesmarkt. The groups usually perform voluntarily to enrich the market with Advent music. The main market stage is the platform for numerous parish brass ensembles, children's, school and Gospel choirs from the region as well as international groups from Nuremberg's Sister Cities.

Performances take place several times a day on the stage in front of the Church of Our Lady; the detailed program is available in the Tourist Information Offices as well as in the Citizens' Information Office.
